

Food-A-Thon Honors Lane Company for Most Food Items Collected

Efforts Benefit Atlanta Community Food Bank

Atlanta (November 2007) – Once again, Lane Company has won one of the top honors from The Atlanta Apartment Association Food A-Thon. Lane Company won the award for The Most Food Items Collected in the association’s 2007 food drive.

The firm has held the title for 14 of the past 15 years. The Apartment Association bestowed the award at its banquet on Thursday, November 15.

“Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to help us achieve this amazing total,” said Ka’Ren Sarvis, Lane Company’s Director of Training, and organizer of the firm’s charity effort. “Through the support, help and encouragement of each associate involved, we truly made big things happen. What a difference we have made to our community!”

Lane Company associates solicited donations at each of the metro Atlanta apartment communities it manages. It also partnered this year with the Georgia World Congress Center Authority, which collected enough food to make thousands of meals for the hungry.

Sarvis says that all totaled, this year’s Food-A-Thon provided the means for 4.1 million meals.
